

McClellan Thinks the Appointment of Green Will Give Satisfaction.

Connolly Growing in Favor and Will Stay in Office as Long as Mayor Hall.

The Committee of Seventy Insist Upon the Mayor Retiring Still Against His Will.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

GEN. McCLELLAN ON THE SITUATION. New York, Sept. 19.—The positive refusal of General McClellan to accept the nomination of the Committee of Seventy has caused the confusion of Mayor Hall and his party of adherents. The general statement yesterday that he declined to accept the nomination was not a final statement, but a statement of his position at that time. He is now in a position to accept the nomination, but he is not doing so. He is now in a position to accept the nomination, but he is not doing so. He is now in a position to accept the nomination, but he is not doing so.

CITY EMPLOYEES LIKELY TO SUFFER. The notification of the Mayor to the various departments that he does not recognize either Connolly or Green will have a serious effect on the pay department. It is now announced that no office of Connolly's will be obeyed, consequently employees must suffer deprivation of their pay till the matter is settled.

There is growing sentiment in favor of Connolly, and even the Times thinks he is entitled to some consideration. The documents of his office at the disposal of the public, show that he is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

WANTS TO SELL OUT. It is stated on good authority that one of the members of the committee who was yesterday endeavoring to effect a hurried sale of the real estate belonging to the city, has been offered a sum of money for the same. The offer was made by a man who is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

A leading Tammany politician states that the Controller's accounts show that Hall's friends were well paid for their services. The accounts show that Hall's friends were well paid for their services. The accounts show that Hall's friends were well paid for their services.

WEDNESDAY'S POLICE. Wednesday last, police detectives made an arrest which the authorities say had something to do with the robbery of the city. The police say that they have arrested a man who is a man of high character and high ability. He is a man of high character and high ability.

NO LAW ON THE SIDE OF THE MAYOR. It seems certain that the Mayor is not on the side of the law. The Mayor is not on the side of the law. The Mayor is not on the side of the law.
